ORGANIZATIONS CLOSING THEIR SUMMER HOMES AFTER SUCCESSFUL TERM

Many Groups Enjoyed Outings on Bay-Waveland Coast At the Various Summer Homes of Organizations From Nearby City

The season now closing has seen highly successful outings on the Bay-Waveland Coast of many groups from New Orleans who own summer homes here which are occupied for the greater portion of the season from June to September. The majority of these groups are closing this week or next and returning to New Orleans for their fall and winter activities.

Camp Onward, owned by the Kinsley House Association of New Orleans, closed Tuesday morning after operating since July 4. Miss Helen C. Pearce, head resident at Kinsley House, is director of the camp and reports a fine season with four groups, nombering from 100 to 150 in each group, having occupied the camp grounds. Fathers, mothers, young men and women and children of every age compose the Camp Onward residents. All must be members of Kinsley House for a year to participate in the camp. Kinsley House, located in the 'Irish Channel' section of New Orleans, takes care of the recreational needs of that community, and in the summer extends this interest to the summer camp here. Each group arranged its own program during its Coast visit from minstrel to circus. High lights for the boys were the fishing and crabbing expeditions. Arrangements were made at the camp for each "catch" to be prepared for the individuals making the catch.

Evangelical Center

The Dielmann Evangelical Center which was opened in June, closed Wednesday of this week. Four groups occupied the center, namely, younger girls, older girls, Sunday School teachers and last, a group of boys from the ages of 12 to 16 who were at camp from August 18 to its closing.

Protestant Child Home

The summer home for the children's Home of the Protestant Episcopal Church, located on the far south beach at Waveland, has been in operation since early June and will close next week. About 50 children from the home in New Orleans have occupied the Coast home during that period. A complete camp schedule was observed. Miss Mary Clifton Wharton, superintendent, directed the camp.

St. Margaret's Daughters

The Hubert Blenk Momerial home conducted by St. Margaret's Daughters enjoyed another successful season, operating from early June until Tuesday of this week when the last group departed for New Orleans. As was usual mothers and children from congested districts were given two weeks' outing on the coast with the healthful actitvities of this section "putting new life" into them.

Holy Cross Villa

Holy Cross Villa owned by the Brothers of the Holy Cross who conduct Holy Cross College in New Orleans, has had an interesting season with about 30 boys, mostly from New Orleans, in attendance at the summer home here. Two hours of class work was conducted daily and the rest of the time was spent in Coast recreations. The school opened early in June and closed Wednesday of this Week. Brother Ignatius was in charge for the first two months and Brother Vincent has been in charge this last month.

St. Adele's Home

St. Adele's Home which is operated by Sisters of Mt. Carmel who conduct Mt. Carmel Academy at Lake View, New Orleans, a high school, normal and commercial course school, has been open since June 4, and will close early in Sepember. The home which receives paying guests for the season, has had a successful season, which has been enlivened by visits from former pupils, friends and sisters from various sections coming here for a vacation outing.

The sisters had as their guests Tuesday of this week 12 of the nursing sisters from Charity Hospital, New Orleans, who spent most of the day on the beach enjoying the breezes and sunshine. Luncheon was served on the back porch at the home.

Jewish Federation

The Jewish Federation summer home on the beach opened June 20 and will close September 2. Four groups have occupied the place during the season. The family group, including about 70 persons, under the direction of Mrs. Nat Cohen, was the first group here. Fifty from the Young Men's Hebrew Association, direcetd by Herbert Pailet, was the second group. They were followed by over 100 children from the Jewish Children's Home. The last group is from the Young Woman's Hebrew Association, directed by Miss Rose Brener, with 30 in attendance. The children remained for a month, and the other three groups for two weeks each.

ACADEMY WILL OPEN SEPT. 11TH.

Indications Are For a Large Enrollment at St. Joseph's Academy for 1935-36

St. Joseph's Academy, Bay St. Louis, operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph order, will open its 1935-36 session, September 11, officials of the school announce. Registration for local students will be September 9 and 10.

Indications are for a large enrollment for the next session. A good number of applicants have been received with students from various localities seeking admission to the well known Coast school.

In the more than 75 years of the school's existence, it has had the patronage of a wide circle of friends from the Coast and nearby states, drawing especially from New Orleans. The location of the school beside the waters of the Bay and in a pleasant section; the physical equipment of the school with its two handsome buildings; the efficiency of its teaching staff; and the fine atmosphere of the home life, are all coducive to its continued popularity over many years among patrons and teachers. The Sisters who direct the school are to be congratulated, one the eve of another session, on the excellent school.

SHIELDS WINNER IN TENNIS

Bay-Waveland Resident Is Winner Over McConnell in Municipal Tournament Sunday

The finals in the men's singles of the municipal tennis tournament held in Bay St. Louis, Miss., were played Sunday afternoon after being postponed on account of the players participating in the public parks tournament held in New Orleans the past week. Bernie Shields defeated James N. McConnell in straight sets 6-2, 6-0, 6-2.

Althought not indicated by the game score, the match was closely contested, especially in the first set when McConnell was sending deep drives to the corners but the steadiness of Shields' returns were too much for him. Shields took the second set with apparent ease, winning most of his points on sharp volleys. McConnell steadied considerably in the third set and several times threatened to break through for the winning point but Shields' steady chops from one side to the other finally wore him down.

The doubles were won by Shields and McConnell, who teamed together to beat Edward Heath and Peter Monrose in a close and exciting match which lasted well into the evening. Shields and McConnell took the first set 6-4, and then seemed to have easy going taking the second set 6-2, but Heath and Monrose took the offensive ni the third set and won it 8-6. The final and deciding set went to Shields and McConnell at 6-3.

A large crowd attended the matches, which were held at St. Stanislaus college. Cups were awarded the winners by Brother Cornelius who acted as official referee.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Miss Agnes Lagniel of Washington Street went to New Orleans Monday to undergo an operation for appendicitis at Mercy Hospital. Her condition is reported satisfactory.

MISSISSIPPI INDUSTRIALIST NOMINATED FOR GOVERNORSHIP OF STATE

HUGH WHITE

Unofficial returns give Hugh White a lead of from 12000 to 14000 votes over his opponent, Paul Johnson, and his election is conceded from the face of figures canvassed. Only a comparatively small number of precincts are to be heard from at this time of writing and even the total number of these would not change the result. Mr. White will give Mississippi a business administration and ideal government.

LOCAL LIBRARIAN PREPARING TO TOUR HANCOCK COUNTY

Colored Branch E. R. A. Library To Give Benefit September 10.

Miss Louise Crawford, librarian and secretary of the Hancock E. R. A. County Library, is busy preparing for her fall tour of the rural districts. She will distribute loan collections of books and magazines to a number of branch libraries in anticipation of the opening of the schools.

Those who can call to mind the earlier years of the muchly publicized "gay nineties" will remember the advent of the Negro cakewalk, the universal applause with which it was hailed as unique pantomine by the entire country, and its adoption for a time, in Paris and London, as the latest and maddest American caprice.

Yet no race other than the histrionically ingenious one that invented it, could ever give to it the inimitable pulse of African rhythm and fun. The colored branch of the E. R. A. library at Bay St. Louis will give a genuine cakewalk, together with an old-fashioned colored minstrel show, on the night of Tuesday, September 10, at Promote Hall, to raise funds for its reading room.

Upstate extensions of the library are invited to send accounts of their activities in raising money for the purchase of books to this column.

During the World War a daughter of a medical Director in the United States Navy wrote letters to a friend at home concerning the hospital in France where she served as a Red Cross nurse. The reflection of the courage of doomed men, lined on simple paper by her words, was so vividly alive in faith and drollery that a slim book of her letters, called "Mademoissele Miss," was printed without her knowledge and distributed, in a limited edicition, to leaven the sadness which people feel about men who die on battlefields.

In view of the world affairs as reported in Europe today, it may prove soothing or comforting to people obsessed by the thought of another possible carnage. We're an old softie; it didn't help us much. But you can get it from Mrs. Sanford, at the library desk, and try it.

GOLDEN JUBILEE WAS HELD

Sister Mary Zita Honored at High Mass Followed By Dinner at Convent

Sister Mary Zita, a resident of St. Joseph's Academy, Bay St. Louis, for more than 25 years, celebrated her golden jubilee as a member of the Order of St. Joseph for 50 years, at a special high mass last Monday morning in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church. Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, pastor, officiated at the mass. Brothers of the Sacred Heart from St. Stanislaus College sang the mass.

For the occasion the altar was beautifully decorated with a profusion of golden glow and other yellow blossoms of the season. A gold lace cloth covered the altar, and the yellow light from the candles completed the color effect for the golden jubilee.

A dinner honoring Sister Mary Zita was held at the convent at noon Monday. Dinner was served in the student's refectory which had been decorated with yellow blossoms. A special guest for the occasion was Sister Ann Victoria of New Orleans, blood sister of Sister Mary Zita, also a religious.

King's Daughters Circle Meeting Next Monday

The regular meeting of the Bay St. Louis Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons will be held Monday afternoon, 1:30 o'clock, at The Answer. Despite the holiday, it is imperative that the meeting occur at this time and a full attendance of the membership is requested as matters of importance are to be discussed.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT TO SPEAK

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy Will Attend Mississippi PTA Convention

The annual convention of the Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held at Jackson, October 2-4, Mrs. C. C. McDonald of Bay St. Louis, state president, anonunced.

The national guest at the convention will be Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, Winnetka, Ill., national president. Mrs. McDonald met Mrs. Langworthy at the national voncention in Miami, Fla., last spring and is much impressed with her ability and enthusiasm for P. T. A. work. Mrs. Langworthy is now in England in attendance at a meeting of international educators, and will return to the United States in time to hold the annual board of Managers meeting of the P. T. A. at Rapid City, N. D., or Chicago, and with only a week intervening, attend the Mississippi convention. She is scheduled for four state conventions during October, the first being in Mississippi.

Since her election last spring, Mrs. Langworthy has visited Hawaii and England and many states in her work with the P. T. A.

DATES SET FOR STATE CONVENTI'N

King's Daughters Will Meet In Gulfport October 29-31 in Annual Session

The annual convention of the Mississippi branch of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons will be held in Gulfport, headquarters at the Hotel Markham, Mrs. A. F. Fournier, of Waveland, state president announced. The dates of the convention have been set at October 29-31, with the first session, an open meeting the night of October 29, at the First Methodist church.

At the close of the opening session the Junior Circle of the King's Daughters of Gulfport will entertain honoring the delegates. The banquet will be held the night of the 30th. Business sessions will be held both mornings and afternoons.

The program for the convention is yet in the making, Mrs. Fournier stated. The convention call has been completed and will be issued in a few days. At this convention all officers are to be elected, in accordance with the by-laws.

Mrs. Fournier expressed her pleasure in holding this convention in Gulfport as it was at the convention in Gulfport eight years ago that she first accepted office for the state organization. The office of vice-president was carried at that time and she became the first state vice-president, an office she has held for five years, but not consecutively, and she has been president three terms, but not consecutively.

In Mississippi there are now 43 senior circles and 13 junior circles. The organizations own and operate seven hospitals, three nursing homes and a home at Natchez for mothers and babies.

The silver anniversary of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons will be celebrated next year at the international convention in Richmond, Va.

Teachers' Pay To Be Issue Before Next Legislature

Members of the next legislature should be contacted immediately by those interested in seeing Mississippi schools on a firm financial basis, W. F. Bond, state superintendent of education, said at Jackson this week as he reviewed the situation in the state in reference to teachers' salaries.

"If the appropriation is given a real increase there will be money to pay the teachers at the close of the school term," he states, "otherwise hundreds of teachers in the state will either receive very small salaries or go without pay for a part of the session."

The success of the educational program for the next year depends largely on what the legislature appropriates for schools when it convenes in January, he said.

STANISLAUS PREPARES OPENING

1935-36 Session Will Begin September 9—Football Practice Started This Week

St. Stanislaus College is preparing for the opening of the 1935-36 session, which will begin September 9, college officials announced. Local registration will be September 7.

Indications are for a large enrollment for the ensuing session, with many inquiries coming from sections of the country. Brother William, president; Brother Casimir, vice-president; Brother Anselm and Brother Romauld of the faculty, have been travelling for the past month in the interest of the college, the first two named being in New Orleans this week and expected back at the college Sunday.

Football practice started this week under the direction of Coach Harry Glover who was coach last year and who piloted his Rockachaws to many successes.

In preparation for the opening of school much needed work has been done at the college. Repairing thruout the interior and renovations in the domitories have been completed. All beds in the building will be equipped with new mattresses. The grounds have been cleared. Needed work has been done on the athletic field at the stadium.

LABOR DAY WILL DRAW BIG CROWD

Annual Crowd of Outing Seekers Are Expected to Visit Bay-Waveland Section

The annual crowds of outing and picnic groups from New Orleans are expected in the Bay-Waveland area over the Labor Day week-end, and the week-end crowd will, no doubt, be swelled by an even larger group for next Monday. The majority of the business houses of New Orleans close their doors in observanve of Labor Day and many families and individuals take advantage of this holiday to motor to the nearby Mississippi Coast for a final outing before the opening of schools which will keep many families at home for the next nine months.

Bay St. Louis welcomes these visitors who come here to make-merry and local business houses, especially restaurants, drug stores ice cream parlors, etc., reap a rich reward from the great crowd of holiday guests.

Another phase of the Labor Day period which is not quite so pleasant is the recognition that at this season many of those who have lived in the Bay-Waveland section for the summer, will depart for their homes in the city, called there by the exigencies of school and business.

Motorists should be warned to use every precaution to prevent accidents during the week-end when the highways will be filled with so many automobiles. Pedestrians are urged to be very careful in their respective pasages down the streets so that none may be injured by passing cars. Swimmers, unfamiliarly with Coast waters, are urged to take care, so that no fatalities will mar the holiday.

Notice of Meeting Of Red Cross at City Hall, Friday, Aug. 30

The Hancock County Chapter Red Cross will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, August 30 at 2:30 P. M., at City Hall.

A full attendance is requested—matters of importance to be discussed.

Tuesday's second Democratic primary in Bay St. Louis and over Hancock county passed off peaceably and without the slightest untoward incident.

The weather was favorable and a heavy vote polled. Bay St. Louis for the first time had its three voting precincts this year and well might there be four in future in order to save time in counting ballots and wear on commissioners and clerks who remained at their post all night.

Since the majority rules we well abide by the results and so do others. Our Democratic form of government is ideal and since it has not been improved here or elsewhere it must necessarily be the best.

The story of results follows; including the first primary, and beginning January 1, 1936, the men below-named will hold office for the four years ensuing, since a primary in Mississippi is tentamount to a regular election:

Clerk of Courts, A. G. Favre, re-elected.

Sheriff and Tax-Collector, Claud Monti.

County Assessor, George L. Cuevas, re-elected.

County Attorney, E. J. Gex, re-elected.

County Supt. of Education, Kenneth McCarty.

County Representative, Lucien M. Gex.

Senator, 40th District, Frank Pittman.

Beat 5

Supervisor, T. Ed. Kellar, present Sheriff.

Justices of Peace, Leon B. Capdepon, (re-eleced) and Alcide Ladner, both of Bay St. Louis.

Constable, Mark B. Oliver, Bay St. Louis.

Superivsors Over County

Beat 1, Charles B. Murphy, re-elected.

Beat 2, John B. Wheat, re-elected.

Beat 3, Calvin Shaw, re-elected.

Beat 4, Jack Lott, filling a vacancy.

Senatorial Race

Frank Pittman, former resident of Bay St. Louis and for several years county agent for Hancock, was successful in his run-off with present County Representative, W. J. Fleming, and will serve as Senator from this the Fortieth District, comprising the counties of Hancock, Pearl River and Lamar.

The Echo elsewhere publishes figures from over the county. While the official figures are not available until Thursday afternoon and evening, past the hour of going to press, we have used the unofficial tabulation which is accepted as well nigh accurate. However, we present them only on face value.

ONLY ONE COMPLAINT RECEIVED

No Personal Assessment and Only One Real Assessment Complaint Filed

The City of Bay St. Louis mayor and commissioners at their second regular meeting in August, held on the 19th, received only one complaint relative to real estate assessment and no complaints were filed for personal assessments, it is reported.

The city officials had advertised that all complaints must be filed with the board by August 19 meeting in order that they could be heard at that time, preparatory to closing the real and personal assessment rolls of the city for the fiscal year.

It would appear that the mayor and city commissioners acting as an assessment and equalizing board for the real and personal assessment rolls of the city of Bay St. Louis have done an excellent and highly satisfactory job of equalizing the tax assessments, since, out of the thousands of persons concerned, only one complaint was filed. Mayor Blaize and Commissioners Perkins and Bourgeois are to be congratulated on this extraordinary unusual record of accomplishments.

THE DECLINING YEARS

NOTHING is more tragic than poverty-stricken old age.

And nothing—especially in these times—is more prevalent.

Something like seventy per cent of men, once they reach the age of retirement, find themselves without money sufficient to provide for the needs of life. To subsist, they must accept public charity—or become burdens to their relatives and friends.

Many such men were once wealthy. Many more earned comfortable incomes during their working years. Some managed to create sizable estates only to lose them. Most of them made some kind of an attempt to guard against the exigencies of the future, and failed. They can look back now and see the mistakes they made—and feel the bitterness of futility. In most cases, it is too late to mend.

Those distastrous examples should be pondered upon by men in the young and middle years. They have a chance to avoid the pitfalls that caused the downfall of so many of their elders. Today, ways are open to them whereby they can create an estate, on the "easy installment" plan—an estate that will exist when they need it most, and that will not have been wiped out by a calamity they could not foresee.

Through life insurance, annuities, trust funds and similar methods thousands of men are preparing for a self-sustaining, independent old age. They can look forward to the declining years without fear.

NEW NOTES ON CRIME

PROFESSOR William F. Ogburn, who teaches sociology at the University of Chicago, recently took a few flings at popular notions about crime, saying among other things that cities with a large percentage of foreign-born have less crime than those with large native-born populations.

Moreover, avers the professor, who must have an idea on the subject, the nation's crime increases from East to West and the crime rate for cities East of the Mississippi river is only half that of the cities west of the river.

The professor also prints out that cities with a large percentage of men in proportion to women have high crime rates and large percentage of married men, or a high church membership, means a lower crime rate. Favorable economic conditions mean less crime and hard times and suffering mean more crime, says he.

A few months ago it looked as if there MIGHT be an Italian-Ethiopian war. Now it looks as if there MUST be. Pressure and argument by the other great powers has not changed Mussolini's determination a whit—and Ethiopia answers that she will fight for her independence until her last man has met death on the battlefield. Italy wants Ethiopia for one simple reason—natural resources. Today, Italy is dependent on foreign supplies of raw cotton, oil, coal, iron, copper. Lack of these national essentials—which Ethiopia is supposed to possess—is hampering Italy badly. It's the old case of a big nation going after a small one when the latter has something it can use.

In commenting on the proposal that large corporations be prohibited from making gifts to charity, Walter Lippmann, the well known publicist wrote: "Governments ought not on purely theoretical grounds, wantonly disturb a custom of the people. Now it is a fact, established by usage, that private charity depends for more than a fifth of its support on corporations. . . . Customs and usage are entitled to respect. To disturb them simply because someone in authority happens to have a personal dislike of them is a kind of irresponsible meddling which no seasoned public official would contemplate."

Japan has protested informally against a cartoon showing the Emperor in what the good people of Nippon regarded as an unfavorable light, but the State Department has smoothed things over by stating that no harm was intended and that the magazine that published the picture simply was making a little good natured fun. In this country, nobody is beyond the reach of the cartoon. Foreigners should not be too touchy on the subject.

You can go around the world, and then make the trip again, without finding a place to live in that is any better than Bay St. Louis.

Almost any man feels important when a newspaper reporter asks his opinion about something that nobody knows anything much about.

The average city slicker has the idea that the farmer ought to grow cheap food for him whether the farmer makes a decent living out of his crop or not.

Rocking the boat to scare his passenger caused the death of a good swimmer last week. The victim dragged both into the water to stay. This may be worth remembering the next time you are tempted to rock the boat.

FOR A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF OUR SCHOOLS

WITH State and county elections numbered with the things of the past and on the threshold of opening of urban and suburban schools over the State, it might be well now to turn our minds to one if not, perhaps, the most important things to engross our attention in every day life.

Our schools have worked in upward trend, their expansion in quality of work and enrollment form a subject of more than ordinary import and interest.

Children of today will be the men and women of tomorrow and there is no greater asset for the future than our boys and girls. Mississippi has schools of excellence. From our institutions men and women have been sent over the world and carved their names deep and wide, not only making a niche for themselves and the State they hailed from but for their alma mater as well.

Sound education, development of the heart and mind, is essential for training and culture and potential influence and effort for accomplishment.

The Echo published last week an announcement than meant more than mere reading matter for the front page, indicating, as it did, we were prepared for the forthcoming scholastic year with able corps of teachers for each of our schools and also announcing date of opening.

We would ask, and teachers encourage the idea, that patrons visit the schools oftener, take a more intimate interest in the doings and welfare of our institutions. Intelligent co-operation is always welcome. Let us get better acquainted with our schools and the teachers. It will mean for a better and more constructive understanding.

The best way to get your share of the wealth of the country is to work hard for it.

MORE PEOPLE FOR OUR COAST

BAY St. Louis and the balance of the Mississippi Gulf Coast has had more than its share of summer residents and transient visitors this season and auto tourists in apparently numberless quantity.

But with our superabundance of nature's beneficent blessing to mankind in quest of health, recreation and pleasure, to say nothing of relaxation, there is vast room for a bigger influx and every effort possible should be exerted to attract more people hither each year.

Our Chamber of Commerce and other organized bodies function all the year 'round and the individual is not lax in inviting and welcoming the hosts of visitors that come out from time to time. However, it appears this is not sufficient.

There should be such constant and insistent effort as to attract ample numbers who would keep our hotels filled practically to capacity; there should be thousands more of automobiles traveling our Coast land daily, our bathing waters direct from the gulf should be a joy and boon to many more and our thousand and one offerings should be taken advantage of in multiple numbers over the present.

It is hoped there will be attractions—if this be necessary. Public and recreational piers, more parks, community houses where visitors and others may assemble; places where thousands could spend the day in picnic past times on Sundays and other days of the week.

Bay St. Louis we hope in time will make a full bid for thousands in manifold form of visitors and others who might come to, at least, bide awee, with the Coast and its hospitable people.

BABY WITHOUT A BRAIN

MEDICAL scientists are interested in the baby boy who lived twenty-seven days without a brain, but who showed reaction to pain tests because science has always maintained that nereves telegraph sensations to the brain and that if the brain or nervous system is out of order there is no pain.

The boy, it seems, was normal for six or seven days, behaving like most babies, crying, moving hands an feet and taking food regularly. Heretofore, the idea has been that the brain dictates behavior.

It seems that, for some reason, two hemispheres of the baby's brain failed to develop and that instead of the usual brain the head cavity was filled with fluid only.

Will Rogers deserves a wreath on account of the uniform cleanness of the things he said and the shows he was in.

THE AUTO WILL GET YOU YET!

THE menace of the automobile is increasing.

The person reading this article has a 1 to 100 shot of being injured this year and a 1 to 3,500 shot of being killed.

To be exact, out of two persons now living one will be injured in the next fifty years, one out of four in the next twenty years.

If you can count the circle of your friends up to twenty it startle you to know that unless they are more careful than the average person one of them will be injured or killed in a motor vehicle accident within the next five years.

These figures are based upon statistics set-up by the National Safety Council.

WILL ROGERS GOES

THE American public generally was stunned by the news of the tragic death of Will Rogers. Millions of people in this country read his daily comment on public affairs, in which humor and philosophy were mixed, saw him in motion pictures and heard him over radio programs. To these people Will Rogers was not considered a stranger but his friendliness and good nature had brought him close to their hearts. He was a remarkable man, deserving much praise for the splendid career which he made for himself.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

BOTH MEN PREFERRED THE FULL LIFE OF ACTIVITY

(Daily Clarion-Ledger)

IT has been suggested in the comment following the death of Rogers and Post that the end may have been as they wished. For them no possibility of satisfaction in helplessness and the soft surroundings of civilization. They had preferred the full life of activity—preferred it in the out of doors—and there they found the end.

It is a singular thing that as the civilization centers meditate upon this outstanding news of tragedy, the lines of interest go from the most settled places to one of the remote places of the continent.

New York, which knew Rogers so well as actor, lecturer, genius in philosophy, and of whose Broadway he was one of the most prominent characters, looks out along the lines of news transmission to a point near the northernmost tip of the continent, whence the news of disaster came by the agency of an Eskimo who ran fifteen miles to make contact with the outposts of civilization. His course took him over the tundra whose sub-soil always is solidly frozen.

As the theatrical, entertainment and literary centers of which Rogers was a part contemplate the meaning of the news carried by the Eskimo runner, some hardy frontiersman in the region where the sun is shining nearly all day long brought out the bodies of Rogers and Post on the skin boats used by Eskimo fishermen.

Aviation, in which Post was such an outstanding leader, and of which Rogers was such a consistent patron, has knit the ends of the world together, and no evidence of this fact is more impressive than the showing of how the distances are united, in this news of tragedy.

YOUOUGHTTOREADTHESIGNS

(Greenville Democrat-Times)

MAJOR Fred Sullens, of the Jackson Daily News, suggests that highway authorities "put neat signs on bridges crossing our rivers, creeks and brooks, informing motorists of the names of the streams they are crossing."

To which Edgar Harris, of the West Point Times-Leader, declares that "the speed demons of this generation have no time to slow down and read signs or to decipher the romantic Indian names of our rivers and creeks."

"Imagine," says the erstwhile editor of the Times-Leader, "if you can, the driver of the average flivver looking aside in an effort to decipher Shuquatonchee, Yaukanooknay, Bauchita, Tombigbee or even Tibbehaha."

In spite of the difficulty of some of the names of our streams and the fact that many flivver drivers are in a hurry, this writer is inclined to agree with Major Sullens that this information should be given to our home folk, very few of whom know the streams in their own neighborhood. And it would be people still riding leisurely and making a study of the territory through which they travel, making notes and commenting with friends "back home," all of which obviously brings new visitors the next season.

MEN ARE SLAVES

(Jackson Daily News)

DISCUSSION of the right of men to go coatless brings out the fact that in New York a man without a coat must ride on the freight elevator in the Fashion Center Building. A man who got into the car of the passenger elevator was arrested.

The name of the building suggests the possibility that the rule was made in the interest of selling coats. But far from the Fashion Center Building men must wear coats or suffer in certain ways for their refusal to do so.

Women wear what they want to wear, discarding what they do not choose to wear. Almost any woman nowadays standing between the spectator and the sun exemplifies the fact, and the world is not worse, or more interesting, as a result of the change.

But men are slaves of custom.

They can do 100 per cent better work coatless, perhaps as the irate, arrested, New Yorker complained.

What of it? Most women, and many men, say coats shall be worn. Quality of work, degree of comfort, are matters of little importance compared with the will of the majority.

MISSISSIPPI HEALTH

(West Point Times-Leader)

DR. Felix J. Underwood, executive officer of the Mississippi State board of health, reports that with progressive health methods, Mississippians are in better health and better humor than ever before. Health education is on the increase, the state laboratory service is rapidly expanding and municipal and rural sanitation are improving.

Tuberculosis diagnosis units traveling from county to county are cutting down the death rate by early location and treatment. One of the significant items in the report is the decrease of deaths in maternity cases. In 1921 the rate was 9.5 per thousand; in 1934 it was 6.4 per cent.

The Mississippi health department works in close co-operation and harmony with the doctors. It licenses physicians, prosecutes quacks, and is a sort of clearing house for medical records. This enables the state to promote health programs in which both public and private talent may be called upon; and also takes the department out of the field of politics.

Dr. Underwood and his associates are doing a good work. The health department is a credit to the state.

SEVERAL INTERESTED GARDNERS—MANY LOVELY GARDENS

A drive through Bay St. Louis at this season discloses many beautiful gardens at the height of their mid-summer and early autumn bloom and many interested gardeners are engaged in making of these gardens even lovelier spots. Seldom one pass a home where no effort at beautification is noted. From the handsome beach residences to the lowly cottages of the side streets, one observes flowers planted, shrubc trimmed, trees pruned, and all receiving the care which means interest not only in the appearance of the home grounds, but also in the cultivation of the plants themselves.

Not only women are interested in their gardens but many of the men are enthusiastic gardeners, and are largely responsible for the success of the plantings at their respective homes. Outstanding among the men gardeners are W. A. McDonald of North Beach Boulevard and Paul N. Planchet of Union street. Mr. McDonald has a wide varitey of flowers and this spring was especially interested in some imported lily bulbs. Mr. Planchet grows unusually fine dahlias, many of which are now in flower, and also cultivates gladiolus and chrysanthemums with fine success.

To the voters of Hancock County, Beat 1, there seems to be much criicism about my coming down or withdrawing from the board race of beat one. There are rumors that I was bought out by different factions of the county, but I can present an affidavit signed by myself and any faction that this rumor is untrue. Now I considered each side and each angle and I realized that I would have only 110 votes to draw 92 from realizing that I only had 86 votes to work to if I lost 18 of this 110 I would lose after realizing that I had lost both money and votes I thought it the best finanicially to come down.

We will have to realize with the lead Mr. Murphy had. We would be left, so let just be good losers and wait for another day. Now I wish to thank each and everyone for their vote, support and influence. Hoping that you will consider the situation and realize the odds that were against us, and also realize that I would have to double what I had to come out winner. I also wish to thank my three opponents for the courtesy shown toward me and others that threw the campaign. Let us all learn to bear the inequalities of life without murmur.

Congressional Sidelights by Congressman Wm. M. Colmer

COTTON ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM

According to information just furnished me by the AAA, the farm value of lint and seed in the Sixth District of Mississippi increased from $2,832,878.03 in the 1932-33 season to $4,576,761.22 in 1933-34 and to $5,563,498.93 in 1934-35. Taking the country as a whole the average value of a bale of cotton and the seed was $37.42 in 1932, $55.35 in 1933, and $80.02 in 1934.

FREE SEA FOOD INSPECTION

Senator Harrison and I succeeded in getting through Congress a bill providing for the free inspection of sea food by the Food and Drug Administration on much the same basis as meat has been inspected for some time. During the last Congress we got the first sea food inspection bill through, but at that time it was impossible to secure passage of a bill giving the inspection without cost to the customer. A charge of $1200 for a six month's season has been in force since that time. While this free inspection has greatly reduced the number of seizures of shrimp by the agents of the Food and Drug Administration and has, therefore, saved the packers thousands of dollars, it has worked some hardships on the smaller packers.

ADJUSTED SERVICE CERITFICATES

The necessary 217 names have been secured to the petition to discharge the Ways and Means committee from further consideration of H. R. 1; so the bill for the payment of the adjusted service certificates is certain to come up for early consideration at the next session in January. There is no question whatever in my opinion, but that the "bonus" bill will pass both houses of Congress and become law in the early months of next year.

FINAL NEWSLETTER

In keeping with my policy of trying to make this weekly letter a news column, outlining briefly the work done in Congress, rather than a political sounding board from which to expound my personal views, I am discontinuing CONGRESSIONAL SIDELIGHTS until we reconvene in January.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the newspaper editors of our district for their wonderful cooperation in making this undertaking a success. I have received a very fine response to these letters and feel that they have more than justified the effort that has gone into them.

The letter will be resumed just after Congress meets in January.

RFC PROFITS

The RFC continues to make money on some of its financial deals. Recently the corporation turned a profit of $1,169,837 on the sale of Penn. R. R. Bonds amounting to $15,282,000. The bonds were purchased from the PWA at par and sold at a higher price on the rising market.

AIR BASES

A committee of army officers has been named to study the problem and recommend locations of seven strategically situated air bases and depots recently set up by Congress, although no appropriation has been made.

MISSISSIPPI HEROES TO BE ADDED TO TEXAS HALL OF FAME

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 27.—Names of hundreds of Mississippians, who came to Texas a century ago to fight for liberty under the Lone Star flag, will be enrolled in a hall of fame at the Texas Centennial Exposition which opens in Dallas next June.

These honor rolls, listing Texas revolutionary heroes will be placed in the Hall of 1836 in the State of Texas Building, according to present plans. The building, costing $1,200,000, will house the most precious historical relics and mementoes of the State. The Hall of 1836 will be dedicated to the memory of the men who fought under General Sam Houston to win Texas independence from Mexico.

In the Niche of Heroes, at the main entrance of the State of Texas Building, major leaders of the Revolution will be immortalized in statuary and murals of heroic size. Mississippi's contribution to the Niche of Heroes will probably be Andrew Briscoe who left Claiborne County to command a company of Texas infantry at the Battle of San Juanico. Later to become a pioneer railroad builder in Texas. Briscoe county is named in his honor.

There are many other Mississippians who fought in the Texas Revolution and the republic's army rolls, still intact at the State Capitol at Austin, are being searched so that the name of every Mississippi soldier will be recorded.

Only $5,000 has been spent of the $25,000 fund which Congress voted last year to enable Attorney General Cummings to offer public rewards for information about public enemies. Four rewards were offered and two Indian officers collected $2,500 each in connection with the Dillinger slaying.

MORE MONEY

According to the Treasury's monthly circulation statement for July the total money supply, in active circulation and idle in government vaults, at the end of the month was $15,184,659,217. Increased silver holdings by the Treasury are having a gradual effect on the type of money in general use with larger amounts of silver flowing into trade channels.

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

JOAN CRAWFORD— ROBT. MONTGOMERY PLAY NEWLY-WEDS

In "No More Ladies"—Chas. Ruggles, Franchot Tone, Edna May Oliver Also Cast Members

An array of stars, plus a sophisticated story triumphantly tested first on Broadway, plus the important factors covered by "production value" equals "No More Ladies," Irving Thalberg's new production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, opening at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday.

Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery are co-starred, heading a cast which includes Charlie Ruggles, Franchot Tone and Edna May Oliver.

The co-stars were last seen together in "Forsaking All Others" and in "Letty Lynton" before that, "Ruggles of Red Gap" was Ruggles' latest. Miss Oliver played Betsy Trotwood in "David Copperfield," and Tone scored in "Lives of A Bengal Lancer.

The new Crawford-Montgomery vehicle is based on the stage hit by A. E. Thomas, which completed a long run on Broadway and was hailed by critics and public alike as the most sparkling romantic comedy of recen seasons. The screen story stays close to the original, retaining all the comedy situations and bright dialogue that characterized the play.

Edward H. Griffith, noted for his success with sophisticated stories, directed "No More Ladies." Among his previous hits were "The Animal Kingdom" and "Holiday."

With smart Manhattan and Westchester County as locale of the new picture, Art Director Cedric Gibbons and his associates, E. B. Willis and Joseph Wright, were given a wide scope for the presentation of settings as original as those designed for "When Ladies Meet." These are mostly in "Neo-Greek," the new vogue already sweeping cosmopolitan New York.

In keeping with the aristocratic character she plays in the new picture, Miss Crawford wears Adrian-designed gowns of chic simplicity and tailored smartness. There are twelve of these glamorous ensembles in all.

The picture opens with a whirlwind romance between Marcia (Joan Crawford) and Sherry (Robert Montgomery,) and maintains a rapid-moving tempo until the final fadeout.

Marcia is a light-hearted but level-headed society girl whose love for Sherry, an incorrigible heart-breaker, is such that she submits to wedding bells well within the first reel.

It is then that the picture settles down to revealing the problems that accumulate behind the glamorous exterior of the too-popular young Park Avenue couple.

Meantime, into the story have walked such true-life characters as Fanny, Marcia's salty maiden aunt (Edna May Oliver); Jim, who wants to save her from her husband (Franchot Tone); Edgar, a thorn in the side of organized society (Charlie Ruggles); and Therese, the night club singer (Gail Patrick.)

REVIEW OF MEXICAN JOURNEY

Publisher of Sea Coast Echo And Wife Return From "South of the Border"

(By N-M. C.)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Moreau, publisher and editor of The Sea Coast Echo, and wife, returned Monday from a trip to Monterrey, Mexico, and San Antonio, Texas, reporting a deligthful three weeks' vacation. They have visited in San Antonio several times as guests of relatives, and they were accompanied on the journey by Mrs. C. J. Chadwick. The party were guests while there of Mr. Moreau's nephew-in-law and niece, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Graves.

This was the first trip for the party to Monterrey and they were intrigued with the city, its people and setting. An industrial city, located 150 miles south of American border over a paved highway with a population of more than 150,000, the city has a history dating back to 1581. A city of modern Mexico, yet there is every evidence of old Mexico with its strong Spanish character, evident in the architecture and the customs. A colorful city, built on strong substantial lines, yet it is prevaded with a spirit of ease, space, plenty of time and extraordinary courtesy and kindness.

"We seemed to have been transported to an unknown land where Spanish was the only spoken language and here the siesta was characteristic of the people," Mr. Moreau said. "The money in Mexico is comprehensible when it is known that the peso is the Mexican dollar, worth 28 cents in American money." Mr. Moreau changed his American money in the States before crossing the border getting $3.57 of Mexican money for every $1 in American money. A taxi trip costs one peso; two pesos for a sight seeing auto by the hour. A fair tip at hotel or railroad station was 50 centavos, a half peso.

Mr. Moreau attended the Rotary Club session at the fashionable and exclusive Foreign Club, the Casino Club House, regular meeting place, being temporarily closed because of a strike. There he met the American consul, and was also the guest of the publisher of El Sol, an evening newspaper. All deliberations of the club meeting were in Spanish.

Among the places of interest visited was the Bishop's Palace built in 1786, it continues the show place of the section and the original well is still used by the family that inhabit the palace. The first Catholic bishop appointed by Ferdinand VIII of Spain built this residence on a hill overlooking the city.

Two characteristics noted by Mr. Moreau of the residents of Monterray are: mother veneration and the work done by the wealthy. He noted various instances of sons holding their mothers in highest esteem. He was shown business after business headed by sons and sons-in-laws of the owners.

Only Spanish is spoken, except where one contacts Mexicans who were educated in the United States. The siesta from noon to 2 o'clock, the burros carrying their burdens of vegetables and other marketable products, the colorful houses with their decoration of iron and scroll work the sidewalks formed of orange, red, blue tiles, the carved wooden frames, the modern hotels, the hospitality of the natives, are among the happy memories that the Moreaus will retain of this foreign city "south of the border."

GULF SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 6

The Gulfport public schools will open Sept. 6 and on Sept. 5 there will be a faculty luncheon and all day's teachers institute. Regular school work will begin Sept. 9. The enrollment, last year was 2,400 white, and 700 negro children. Enrollment in the high school was 623 on which 114 were seniors. A greatly increased enrollment is expected this year. During the summer the schools have been renovated and certain improvements made.

NEW DOLLAR BILL

A new one dollar silver certificate will show, for the first time on money, the unfamiliar reverse of the United States seal. It is an unfinished pyramid surrounded by an eye in triangular glory and bears the Roman numerals for the year of the Declaration of Independence. The pyramid is a symbol of strength, and the eye symbolizes an all-seeing Diety.

GENERAL CROPS ARE EXCELLENT

Acreage For Farming Has Shown Increase in Past Five Years; Diversified Crops Predominate

General crop conditions in Hancock County are good this season, according to several farmers from various sections who have been visitors to the Echo office in the past few days. Most crops are satisfactory with no failure of crops noted.

In the past five years there has been a decided increase in acreage for farming purposes, it was stated. No influx of residents is noted, but rather the local people have enlarged their respective fields and developed their ground. This increase may be attributed to various factors but possibly the most telling reason is found in changing conditions within the county. For many years there were other industries in the county dealing with timber and lumber, but as these industries have been withdrawn from the county following the exhaustion of native raw material, the residents have turned to farming as the logical income. The result has been increased acreage and expansion of crop production.

Diversified farming is typical of the county's production. Some cotton is grown and quite a bit of corn, but the acreage in sugar cane, which flourishes well here, is small.

Truck farming is not a predominant industry, though it might well be because weather and soil are both suitable to successful truck farming.

A good start in creating a vegetable market locally was made last spring when the cnning factory operated by the Johnson brothers at the foot of Blaize's wharf made contracts with farmers to can their peas and beans. Thousnds of pounds of beans were canned and thus none of the crops were lost by reason of no market. This type of thing may well become a definite outlet for all production of this section. This factory is used for seafood canning during the season and vegetables the rest of the year.

Jackson Newspaper Says Campaigns Too Long and Expensive

Our campaigns are quite too long. We ought to have a statute providing that no man can open a campaign or announce for office earlier than four months prior to the primary.

Practically every candidate who won in the first primary is now dead broke and many of them in debt.

Those who wno Tuesday will be in a plight much worse. Many of them will be broke and bankrupt. It will take all they earn during the next four years to pay off their debts.

All of which is very silly.—Jackson Daily News.

Provisions To Be Made For Sale of Liquor Over State

A special session of the Texas Legislature, at Austin, will be called to settle the problems of legislation raised by Saturday's vote to repeal the state prohibition amendment.

Gov. James V. Allred said a special session of the Legislature would be necessary to give effect to the constitutional changes and asked legislators to communicate their views on forms of proposed legislation.

To The Voters Of Hancock Couuty

I appreciate the support given me in the first and second primaries and particularly appreciate the assistance of my friends.

Due to the fact that my opponent has been a practicing attorney for a long length of time, and that I have been an attorney for a comparatively short time, I feel encouraged by the confidence placed in me by the electorate.

I entertain no ill feeling whatever against those persons who voted against me as it was their right if they choosed to do so.

Even though I was not elected, I will always be active for the best interest of all the people of Hancock County.

Should I again seek public office I assure the people of this county that I will always conduct my campaign on as high a plane as I did this one.

Again thanking you for the courteous treatment extended to me during my campaign, I remain,

Sincerely,
